DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-8 contain allowable subject matter over the prior art of record.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
3. The claimed invention is directed to a method for making content available. The independent claims identify the feature of "enabling a user to access a server via a website over the Internet; receiving a selection by the user of a content item that will be broadcasted in the future; recording the content item in a storage memory and transferring the content item from the storage memory to the selected device at a time selected by the user". The closest prior art, Mankovitz discloses a conventional recording/reproducing apparatus including program guide information, either singularly or in combination fails to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Mankovitz discloses a conventional recording/reproducing apparatus including program guide information.

Yang discloses an automatically reserved recording and reserved playing back a broadcasted program.

Abecassis discloses a computer themed playing system.

Young discloses a system and process for a VCR scheduling.
